Dumboor Lake

Dumboor Lake is a massive and breathtaking water body with an unending spell of luxuriant green vegetation all around. Dumboor is located in Dhalai and Amarpur Sub-Division and is 115 km from Agartala. Dumboor lake specially attracts nature and adventure loving tourists.

The look of the lake is like the tabor shaped small drum – 'Damru' or 'Dumboor' of Lord Shiva from which the name 'Dumboor' originates. The area of the lake is 41 sq. km and there are 48 islets in the lake. The surrounding hills and the islets are enchantingly emerald green and present a captivating scenic spectacle. Winter attracts hundreds of migratory birds of wild variety attributing the lake the status of a healthy wetland habitat much to the delight of ornithologists and tourists. There is a hydel project near the lake where the river Gomati originates and the area is called Tirthamukh where a big fair (Mela) is held every year on Pous Sankranti on 14th January. The Lake is at the confluence of the rivers Raima and Saima. Boating facilities are available in Dumboor Lake. In one of the islands 'Narkel Kunja' has been developed.

How to Reach:

There is no need of entry formalities like Restricted Area Permit (RAP) or Inner Line Permit (ILP) to visit Tripura.

Air - The State Capital Agartala is well connected by air with Delhi, Kolkata, Guwahati and Chennai. The M.B.B. Airport at Agartala is 125 km away from Dumboor which located under Karbook and Gandacherra Sub-Divisions.
